

Timely Warning Notification: Domestic Violence and Stalking

July 10, 2023

CONTACT: Assistant Chief Kyle Hawbaker, University Police Department 806-651-2300

The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act) is a federal law that requires colleges and universities across the United States to disclose information about crime on and around their campuses. A requirement of this law is timely notification to the campus community of certain crimes in a manner that will aid in the prevention of similar crimes.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AND STALKING

On July 5, 2023, the University was made aware of domestic violence and stalking incidents occurring in on- and off-campus locations, including a residential facility. The incidents were reported to have begun in June 2023, continuing into July.

Crime victim rights and options, and domestic violence information were provided. Title IX is aware of the reported incidents.

A few signs of an abusive relationship or stalking include:

- Assaultive abuse may be physical, emotional and/or verbal.
- Looks at you or acts in ways that scare you.
- Makes unwanted phone calls, texts, or social media posts.
- Assaultive abuse may include damaging property, throwing objects, punching walls, kicking doors, etc.

How to help:

- Bystanders play a critical role in the prevention of sexual and relationship violence. Make the choice to intervene, speak up, or do something about it.
- Believe someone who discloses sexual assault, abusive behavior, or experience with stalking.
- Watch out for friends and fellow students or employees who look like they could be in trouble or need help. Ask if they are ok.
- Stalking Resource Center <https://victimsofcrime.org/stalking-resource-center/>