Interlibrary Loan for a Book – Using WorldCat

You may use the database WorldCat to borrow books from another library, normally at no cost to you. Go to Selected Library Links → Browse Most-Used Databases → WorldCat

Type in a search. If you search a phrase, put it in “quotation marks.” You may leave the search as a keyword (general) search or make it more specific—such as title, subject, etc.

Results will be in order by the number of libraries that own an item. You may change this order to Relevance or Date.
