

Apollo 13: A Successful Failure

Learn about true courage and determination as Apollo 13 commander James Lovell and former N.A.S.A. Flight Director Gene Kranz discuss Apollo 13, A Successful Failure, at WTAMU's Centennial Convocation, Friday, November 12 at First United Bank Center. Both men will share their incredible stories of facing adversity when disaster struck more than 200,000 miles above the earth's surface. Admission is free to the public and the program starts at 7 p.m. Join us for the WTAMU Centennial Convocation, November 12 at the FUBC in canyon
