CORE REQUIREMENTS FOR ENGLISH MAJORS

Courses Required of All English Majors
• ENGL 3351, 3352, 3360, 3361, 3380, 3383, 4301, 4305, 4352.
• Six hours from ENGL 1301 and 1302 or 2311.
• Six hours from ENGL 2321, 2326 2331, 2341, 2342, or 2343.

• ENGL 3311 and 3312.
• Six to eight hours of foreign language. Two courses with a minimum of three hours per course. While not required, students are urged to take both courses in the same language.

Capstone Requirements
The capstone should be completed during the student’s senior year (fall and spring semesters only).
• During the first two weeks of the semester during which the student wishes to complete the capstone, he or she should select a paper written for a WTAMU 3000- or 4000-level English class and make an appointment with a faculty member of his or her choice to request direction of the capstone. Ideally, the capstone mentor should be the faculty member for whom the student wrote the original paper. If that professor is not available to direct the capstone, the student may request the mentorship of another professor.
• Under the faculty member’s direction, the student will prepare (1) a conference length presentation (15–20 minutes) based on the paper and (2) a project portfolio that contains the original paper, revisions and conference paper.
• Prior to the public presentation of the capstone, the English Capstone Committee for that academic year assesses the student’s portfolio using a standardized rubric.
• At a departmental convocation, the student presents his or her conference length paper along with all other English B.A. candidates.
• English faculty assess the presentation using a standardized rubric and vote pass/fail on the capstone presentation.
• The student must receive a majority vote of pass on both the portfolio and the presentation in order to be certified for graduation.
