Before you can receive financial aid for the 2022-2023 school year, the federal government requires that the university's financial aid office verify that your FAFSA information is correct. We must compare your FAFSA with the information on this worksheet and copies of your (and spouse's or parents') 2020 W2s, 1040 Schedule 1, C, E and F (if part of the tax return) and all other required documents, including those listed on the student portal. If there are differences, your FAFSA award might change. We may ask for additional information. Complete this form as soon as possible to get financial aid promptly.

A. Student's Information

 Student's Last Name Student's First Name Student's M.I. Student's Buff ID Number

 Student's Phone Number (include area code) Student's Alternate or Home Phone Number

 Follow the instructions for the chart below, based on your status as determined on the FAFSA.

■ DEPENDENT – List below the people in your parents' household even if you do not live with your parents, and include:

- yourself and your parent(s) (including stepparent), list both parents if they live together, whether married or not
- and your parents' other children even if they do not live with your parents, if they are under 24 years of age and either (a) your parents will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2022 through June 30, 2023, or (b) the children would be required to provide parental information if they were completing a 2022-2023 FAFSA.
- and other people if they now live with your parents, and your parents provide more than half of the other person's support and will continue to provide more than half of that person's support through June 30, 2023.

■ INDEPENDENT - List below the people in your (the student's) household, and include:

- yourself, and your spouse if currently married,
- and your or your spouse's children, if you or your spouse will provide more than half of the children's support from July 1, 2022 through June 30, 2023 even if a child does not live with you,
- and other people if they now live with you, and if you or your spouse currently provide more than half of the other person's support and will continue to provide more than half of that person's support through June 30, 2023.

Per instructions above, list the names of ALL eligible household members and their date of birth, age and relationship to you. If you need space for more household members, attach a separate page with the student's name and Buff ID number at the top.
