

WTAMU Undergraduate Student Age

At West Texas A&M University, the majority of undergraduate students are traditional college-age students. 81% of undergraduates are 25 years old or younger, highlighting WT’s strong appeal to recent high school graduates and young adults beginning their academic and career journeys.

Here’s the breakdown of undergraduate enrollment by age:

Age Range	# UG Enrolled
17-21	4126
22-25	1393
26-30	515
31-40	491
41-50	201
51+	68
Total	6794

This means 5,519 students are age 25 and under, making up the 81% of the undergraduate population. While most students fall within the traditional college age range, WT also proudly supports nontraditional learners, those balancing work, family, or returning to education later in life, adding diverse perspectives to the classroom and campus community.
