¹ CORE: Journalism majors are required to take specific courses for Core 20, Core 30, and Core 90. For all other categories, they may select from any available options (see degree checklist). Apart from the major-specific core requirements, there is no set order in which core courses must be taken.

| | |
|---|--|
| Identified Marketable Skills Effective writing for digital media, broadcast and print – Multimedia production (audio, video, graphic design) – Leadership – Research & analysis – Video & audio production | Top Three Local Employers or Industries/Professional Programs/Possible Career Opportunities Digital and traditional news media outlets – Social media management – Research & data analysis |
|---|--|

Additional notes:

- All Digital Communication & Media majors will compile and submit an e-portfolio that demonstrates required competencies.
- The required internship class should be taken during the final semester.
- Working for “The Prairie” (as paid staff) is highly encouraged.
- The core curriculum must total exactly 42 hours; excess hours must be moved to the major as an elective or a major requirement and stay within the 120-hour requirement or approved total submitted to the Coordinating Board for degree requirements. Some majors specify particular courses to meet core curriculum requirements when options are available.
- At least 36 hours of advanced work (3000- or 4000-level courses) for which tuition is paid must be earned at WTAMU. A maximum of six semester hours in religion (RELI) and six semester hours in physical education (PHED) courses can count toward a baccalaureate degree.

DISCLAIMER: This curriculum guide should be used in conjunction with the corresponding degree checklist for general planning purposes only. The degree checklist (later a student’s official degree plan) should be referred to as the comprehensive list of all courses required for the degree. An official degree plan is required after completing 30 hours. Students should always seek the advice of their academic adviser before scheduling classes.
