

Objectives

Graduates of the program will demonstrate the ability to facilitate student development in the three broad areas described in the American School Counselor Association's (ASCA) National Standards: academic development, career development, and personal/social development. As a result of participating in the school counselor preparation program, graduates will be able to:

1. Plan, design, implement, and evaluate a comprehensive developmental school counseling program;
2. Clearly articulate the role of the school counselor and his/her contributions to the mission of a school program;
3. Provide consultation to parents and teachers to assist them in helping their children and students acquire the skills needed for school success;
4. Select developmentally appropriate interventions to assist students in making educational transitions; and,
5. Demonstrate knowledge and use of emerging technologies in education and school counseling.
