Policy Statement

The Texas A&M University System (system) will strictly comply with all applicable legal requirements prohibiting discrimination, sexual harassment and/or related retaliation against employees, students, applicants for employment or admission, or the public.

Reason for Policy

This policy outlines the civil rights protections provided by the system to employees, students, applicants for employment and admission, and the public, and sets forth procedures and responsibilities for compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

Procedures and Responsibilities

1. AUTHORITY AND SCOPE OF THE EQUAL OPPORTUNITY PROGRAM

- 1.1 The system will provide equal opportunity for employment to all persons regardless of race, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, sexual orientation or gender identity and will strive to achieve full and equal employment opportunity throughout the system.
- 1.2 No individual will, on the basis of race, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, sexual orientation or gender identity be excluded from participation in, or be denied the benefit of or be subjected to discrimination under any system program or activity.
- 1.3 The System Ethics and Compliance Office (SECO), in coordination with the Office of General Counsel (OGC), is responsible for the system's compliance with civil rights laws and regulations and affirmative action programs. This includes, but is not limited to, addressing charges or complaints filed with local, state and federal agencies, and audits or compliance reviews of policies and procedures carried out by the U.S. Department of Labor's Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs, the Texas Workforce Commission's Civil Rights Division, the U.S. Department of Education's Office of Civil Rights and other state and federal affirmative action and civil rights compliance agencies.

- 1.4 The system promotes equal employment opportunity through its procedures, training, compliance with applicable legal requirements and other methods such as affirmative action programs authorized by federal regulations.
- 1.5 Retaliatory action of any kind is prohibited when taken against a complainant, respondent, witness or other person participating in a discrimination, sexual harassment or related retaliation investigation, complaint, hearing or suit. Such retaliatory action will be regarded as a separate and distinct cause for complaint and possible disciplinary action, including dismissal or expulsion.

2. RESPONSIBILITIES

- 2.1 Each member chief executive officer (CEO) is responsible for equal opportunity, affirmative action and program accessibility in accordance with local, state, and federal laws and regulations and system policy.
- 2.2 SECO, in coordination with OGC, will serve as the liaison between members and local, state and federal compliance agencies. SECO is also responsible for the coordination of all civil rights reporting requirements for the system and its members under applicable state and federal regulations.
- 2.3 Each member CEO will appoint an Affirmative Action Representative, a Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 Coordinator, a Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 Coordinator and other administrators who will oversee the implementation of guidelines to ensure compliance with legal and regulatory provisions under this policy.

3. PROCEDURES

- 3.1 The administrators appointed under Section 2.3 will inform SECO as soon as a charge or complaint of discrimination, sexual harassment and/or related retaliation, or notice of civil rights or affirmative action audit, compliance review or other inquiry is received from a local, state or federal agency.
- 3.2 The system will develop a regulation providing system-wide standards for the receipt and processing of complaints of discrimination, sexual harassment, and/or related retaliation.
- 3.3 Annually, each member will develop, maintain and update a written affirmative action plan that follows the guidelines of the U.S. Department of Labor's Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs and the Texas Workforce Commission's Civil Rights Division. These plans will be submitted to SECO for compliance review.
