CONTACT: Assistant Chief Kyle Hawbaker, University Police Department 806-651-2300

The Jeanne Clery Campus Safety Act is a federal law that requires colleges and universities across the United States to disclose information about crime on and around their campuses. A requirement of this law is timely notification to the campus community of certain crimes in a manner that will aid in the prevention of similar crimes.

On Saturday, August 9, 2025, the University Police Department (UPD) received a report of a sexual assault that occurred on August 9, 2025 between the hours of 3 AM – 10 AM with an unknown location. On August 11, 2025, additional information was reported that the sexual assault occurred on-campus in a residential facility, with indications that the victim may have been drugged.

Crime victim rights and options were provided, and the Title IX office was notified.

Sexual assault is never the fault of the victim. While nothing is failsafe, here are some suggestions everyone may want to consider:

- Make sure you have consent. Consent is a clear and freely given yes, not the absence of a no.
- People who are incapacitated by alcohol or drugs cannot give consent.
- Practice being assertive about your boundaries.
- Trust your instincts. If you feel uneasy or sense something is wrong, call for assistance.
- Be active in supporting a safe and respectful community. If you see others engaging in disrespectful or inappropriate actions, speak up and get involved, or contact someone else to assist.
- Make use of on-campus resources (Student Counseling, Student Medical, Title IX, and UPD)
