

The M.Ed. Program for Educational Diagnostician

Required Course work for the M.Ed. with Educational Diagnostician Certification

Prefix	Number	Educational Core Courses (9 hours)
EDPD	6303	Education Research
EDPD	6304	Multicultural Education
EDPD	6329	Human Development
Special Education Courses (15 hours)
EDSP	6354	Theories of LD/ED/BD
EDSP	6356	Advanced Remediation Techniques
EDSP	6358	Seminar in Students with Multiple Impairments
EDSP	6359	Management of Classroom Behaviors of Exceptional Learners
EDSP	6364	Legal Issues in Special Education
Assessment Courses (9 hours)
EPSY	6322	Individual Mental Testing I
EDSP	6376	Interpretation of Assessment Data for Instruction
EPSY	6374	Individual Mental Testing II
Practicum Course (3 hours)
EDSP	6377	Practicum in Diagnosis of Exceptional Students

Total Number of Credit Hours = 36

Total Credit Hours for previous Non-Special Education Majors = 45

To be eligible for the Educational Diagnostician Standard Certificate, you must meet these requirements:

- Hold a valid teaching certificate,
- Have two creditable of teaching experience as a classroom teacher,
- Hold a conferred master's degree (successfully complete all course work and pass the comprehensive exam), and
- Pass the Educational Diagnostician state assessment.

Dual Purpose (recommended for additional specialization and versatility)

Complete a Masters in Curriculum and Instruction, major in Special Education with Educational Diagnostician Certification (2 additional courses/ 6 hours).

Prefix	Number	Course Title
EDSP	6360	Assistive Technology
EDSP	6362	Transition: From Schools to Adult Communities

For Special Education Majors: 42 hour online program.

For Non-Special Education Majors: 51 hour online program.

Faculty

Dr. Conn Thomas, Professor

Dr. Angie Elkins, Assistant Professor

Dr. Frank Goode, Assistant Professor

For more information, contact Dr. Angie Elkins at aelkins@wtamu.edu or call (806) 651-3612.