Lab classes will have the final exam the last official class meeting date prior to dead day and finals beginning.

Online courses will have a final/project that must be submitted during the time finals are under way and must close submission by 10 pm the last day of finals.

In some cases, students may find minor time overlaps for evening finals. In this instance they should consult with their faculty.

NOTE TO FACULTY: If you do not see your class day/time listed please contact the Registrar for direction. Classes are allotted 2 hours for final exams. Anything beyond that time frame must have approval from the Provost's Office and be scheduled so as not to conflict with other scheduled exams which are complying with the 2 hour limit.
