

STUDENT GOVERNMENT OF
WEST TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY
CONSTITUTION

We, the students of West Texas A&M University, in order to promote the general welfare, to secure the full benefits of the United States Constitution for ourselves and our successors, and to act as an official voice of the Student Body, do hereby ordain and establish this Constitution of the Student Government of West Texas A&M University. All provisions of the Constitution are subject to the regulation of the Board of Regents of The Texas A&M University System and the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board.

ARTICLE I
NAME AND PURPOSE OF ORGANIZATION AND MEMBERS THEREOF

SECTION 1. The governmental organization of the students of West Texas A&M University shall be known as the Student Government of West Texas A&M University.

SECTION 2. Every student enrolled at West Texas A&M University, as defined by the registrar of West Texas A&M University, shall have the right to voice their opinion to Student Government and vote in all Student Government elections.

SECTION 3. To provide a representation for the students of West Texas A&M University, to listen to the opinions of these students, and to act as their liaison between the University administration, local and state government, and the public at large.

ARTICLE II
BILL OF RIGHTS

Preamble:

We do hereby establish this Bill of Rights, as the Student Body of West Texas A&M University, for the provision and protection of our rights as students as implied by West Texas A&M University's Vision:

Section I. Protection under the Law

A. The right to the protection of the laws of the United States of America and the State of Texas in all matters, especially the Constitutional rights endowed to citizens of both the nation and the state, shall not be infringed upon by West Texas A&M University, by sub-organizations of the University, by the student government, or by individuals or groups associated with the University.

Section II. Academic Rights

D. The right to receive written instruction for each course assignment. Instructions should include, but are not limited to: purpose, task, format, due date, and grading criteria.

E. The right to receive written explanation of material to be covered on tests and the format(s).

F. The right for students to be evaluated based solely on academic performance.

- G. The right to receive all graded material, tests, quizzes, and assignments in a timely manner, generally within two weeks.
- H. The right to meet with the instructor(s) during their posted office hours.
- I. The right to withdraw from a course(s) before or on the published deadlines (see University calendar) without incurring monetary or academic penalties, within University policy.
- J. The right to repeat a course(s) in which one received a failing grade, within University policy.
- K. The right to receive accurate, thorough, and helpful information from academic advisors.
- L. The right to academic privacy among peers.
- M. The right to be treated with courtesy, dignity, honesty, and respect by the instructors, staff, and other students.

Section III. Access to Higher Education

A. West Texas A&M University, within the limits of its facilities, should be open to all students who are qualified according to its admissions standards. The facilities and services of West Texas A&M University should be open to all of its enrolled students, and West Texas A&M University should use its influence to secure equal access for all students to public facilities in the local community.

Section IV. Civic Freedom

- A. The right to participate fully as citizens of the city, county, state, and country without repercussion from the University or groups affiliated with the University.
- B. The right to participate fully in non-violent civil disobedience, such as protests and rallies, without repercussion from the University or groups affiliated with the University so long as that civil disobedience does not hinder the University from accomplishing its mission.

Section V. Conduct and Due Process

- A. The rights to an independent, fair and impartial university conduct process with jurisdiction in student code of life infractions (see Student Code of Life and University Disciplinary Process).
- B. The right to engage an advisor, advocate, or an attorney during the conduct process.
- C. The right for the students to present witnesses and any pertinent documentation in their defense.
- D. The right to appeal disciplinary decisions issued by university judiciary bodies.
- E. The right to appeal an unfair grade, and for that appeal system to be uniform throughout the University.
- F. The right to be subject only to policies, rules, and regulations as have been fully and clearly formulated, published, and generally made known to everyone concerned.
- G. The right for any individual being charged to be fully informed of the charges and basis for the charges brought against him or her by university judiciary bodies.

Section VI. Democratic Student Governance

- A. The right to establish and maintain a democratic student government association in which each student shall have an equal right and ability to participate, within the student government associations policy.
- B. The right for the student body to elect its student leaders by campus elections where each student shall have an equal chance to cast a vote.
- C. The right for students to petition the student government association with grievances and/or advisory referenda.

Section VII. Freedom of Association

- A. The rights to form, join, and participate in any group or organization at West Texas A&M University for intellectual, political, religious, social, economic, or cultural purposes subject to reasonable regulation by the University.
- B. The rights to form, join, and participate in any group or organization outside West Texas A&M University for intellectual, political, religious, social, economic, or cultural purposes without negative repercussion from the University.

Section VIII. Freedom from Discrimination

- A. The right to enjoy the same opportunities and privileges as any other student without discrimination or prejudice regarding the student's: race, creed, color, sex, age, national origin, sexual orientation, gender expression, religious views or affiliation, political views or affiliation, marital status, condition of physical and mental ability, or any other unreasonable or arbitrary consideration.

Section IX. Freedom of Expression

- A. Students and student organizations should be free to examine and discuss all questions of interest to them and to express opinions publicly and privately. Students should always be free to support causes by orderly means that do not disrupt the regular and essential operations of the institution. At the same time, it should be made clear to the academic and larger community that in their public expressions or demonstrations students or student organizations speak only for themselves.

Section X. Independent Student Media

- A. The right for students to establish and operate communications media which are independent of University editorial control.
- B. The right for independently established student communications media to be circulated around the University.

Section XI. Inquiry

- A. The right to inquire into, and be honestly and fully informed of, the reasons for any University policy affecting the student body, the process by which it was adopted, and the means by which it might be changed.
- B. The right to petition the appropriate authority for changes in faculty, administration, curriculum, and University policy, without fear of reprisal.

Section XII. Shared Governance

- A. The right for the student body to participate in the shared governance of the University especially on university committees that affect the tuition rate, deal with the University budget, and set policy.

Section XIII. Enumerated Rights

- A. The enumeration of these rights shall not be construed as in any way nullifying or otherwise limiting any other rights possessed by students or university standards.
- B. The student government association has the right, following stated processes prescribed in their rules, to amend this document.

ARTICLE III
THE LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

SECTION 1. The legislative branch of the Student Government shall be the Student Senate.

SECTION 2. The officers of the Student Senate shall include:

- (A) The vice president of the Student Government who shall also be the president of the Student Senate.
- (B) The president pro-tem who shall be a senator nominated by the Student Senate, and then approved by a majority vote (50% + 1) of the total present membership of the Student Senate. In the event of more than two nominees, a preliminary vote will be taken. The two candidates receiving a plurality of votes will be in the final run-off vote. In the final run-off vote, as stated, a majority vote is required. The president pro-tem shall have the following duties:
1. To serve as presiding officer of the Student Senate in the absence of the president of the Student Senate.
 2. To succeed to the office of vice president of Student Government/president of the Student Senate upon the Student Senate president's death, resignation, or removal. In the event that the president pro-tem cannot fulfill the duties of this office, the Student Senate shall elect one of their own members to serve as vice president of Student Government/president of Student Senate for the remainder of the term.
 3. To have the same qualifications as the president of the Student Senate.
- (C) The parliamentarian who shall be a senator nominated by the Student Senate, and then approved by a majority vote (50% + 1) of the total present membership of the Student Senate. In the event of more than two nominees, a preliminary vote will be taken. The two candidates receiving a plurality of votes will be in the final run-off vote. In the final run-off vote, as stated, a majority vote is required. The parliamentarian shall have the following duties:
1. To advise the president and other officers, committees, and members on matters of parliamentary procedure.
 2. To advise the president on questions of order or parliamentary inquiry.
- (D) The parliamentarian pro-tem shall be a senator nominated by the Student Senate, and then approved by a majority vote (50% + 1) of the total membership of the student Senate. In the event of more than two nominees, a preliminary vote will be taken. The two candidates receiving a plurality of votes will be in the final run-off vote. In the final run-off vote, as stated, a majority vote is required. The parliamentarian pro-tem shall have the following duties only in the absence of the parliamentarian:
1. To advise the president and other officers, committees, and members on matters of parliamentary procedure.
 2. To advise the president on questions of order or parliamentary inquiry.
- (E) The sergeant-at-arms shall be a senator nominated by the Student Senate, and then approved by a majority vote (50% + 1) of the total membership of the student Senate. In the event of more than two nominees, a preliminary vote will be taken. The two candidates receiving a plurality of votes will be in the final run-off vote. In the final run-off vote, as stated, a majority vote is required. The sergeant-at-arms shall have the following duties:

1. To close the door to the Senate Chambers upon the president calling the meeting to order.
 2. To lead the senate in a moment of silence at the beginning of each Senate meeting.
 3. To lead the senate in the Pledge of Allegiance at the beginning of each Senate meeting.
 4. To administer the oath of office to all new members of the Senate.
 5. To facilitate the running of the open forum at the behest of the presiding officer.
- (F) The president pro-tem, parliamentarian, and parliamentarian pro-tem shall be elected after freshmen and graduate elections, but no later than the fourth regular meeting of the Student Senate. In the event of the death, resignation, or removal, a replacement shall be elected no later than the second regular meeting after the vacancy occurs. A vacancy shall be filled by the same process as stated in Section 2 B, C, and D.
- (G) In the event of the absence, death, resignation, or removal of the vice president of Student Government/president of the Student Senate, the line of succession shall be as follows: 1) president pro-tem of the Student Senate, 2) a senator nominated by the Student Senate, then approved by 2/3 majority vote of the total present membership of the Student Senate, and who meets the same qualifications as the president of the Student Senate. This person shall be elected when necessary.

SECTION 3. Senate Membership.

- (A) The membership of the Student Senate shall be composed of a number in the ratio of one senator to every two hundred students within the designated colleges. The number of freshman senators shall be composed of a number in the ratio of one senator to every two hundred freshman students. The number of graduate senators shall be composed of a number in the ratio of one senator to every two hundred graduate students. Senators must remain in their elected college in order to continue representation of that college. To be elected to the Student Senate, in a general election, candidates must be enrolled in at least one class in the college or major they wish to represent, for the duration of their term of office. Candidates for appointment to Senate, as per Article III, Section 9, can be approved by the Student Senate without meeting this qualification.
- (B) To be a member of the Student Senate, an undergraduate student must be currently registered at West Texas A&M in at least twelve (12) semester hours, unless enrolled in final semester, and have and maintain a cumulative 2.750 grade point average. Senators shall not be on scholastic or disciplinary probation while campaigning for or during their term of office. Freshman senators must have less than 30 hours while serving their term, and must maintain a 2.750 cumulative grade point average. A graduate senator must be enrolled in Graduate School or in the Continuing Education Program, and have and maintain no less than a 2.750 cumulative grade point average. Graduate senators must be currently registered at West Texas A&M in no less than six hours of class work, unless enrolled in final semester.

SECTION 4. The sessions of the Student Senate shall be from the second Monday on which classes are held of each fall and spring semester and end the last Monday before finals.

SECTION 5. Quorum.

- (A) A quorum consists of 2/3 majority of the Student Senate seats currently filled. A quorum is lost when there is no longer 51% of the Student Senate seats currently filled present at that meeting.

A quorum must always be present for any business requiring a vote, except for adjournment and setting the time for adjournment, from the time a meeting is called to order until the time it is adjourned. The only motions that will be heard without a quorum are for adjournment and setting the time for adjournment.

- (B) Calling a meeting to order without a quorum: A meeting may be called to order without a quorum. Senate can proceed for the invocation, pledge, first roll call, guest speakers, discussion, committee reports, announcements, second roll call, adjournment, and setting the time for adjournment.
- (C) Continuing a meeting in progress after losing quorum: After quorum has been lost, Senate can proceed for guest speakers, discussion, committee reports, announcements, and the second roll call, adjournment, and setting the time for adjournment.

SECTION 6. A first and second roll call will always be taken before adjournment for record keeping purposes.

SECTION 7. Student senators shall meet with the Dean of the College under which they are elected no less than once a semester (fall and spring). Reports of these meetings shall be presented to the Student Senate. Attendance to such meetings shall be enforced in the same manner as regular Senate meetings.

SECTION 8. Student Senate Absences.

- (A) Each senator shall be allowed a total of four absences during the fall and spring semesters combined as determined by the Rules and Appropriations Committee chair and the Senate secretary. If a fifth absence occurs, the Senator shall be automatically removed from his/her seat.
- (B) In the case of an emergency absence, the Rules and Appropriations Committee chair may find the absence excusable and it will not count toward a regular absence. The Senator must provide written documentation to the Chair of Rules and Appropriations Committee within two weeks of the date of absence for this to be considered.
- (C) In regards to half absences: The Senate President along with the Chairman of the Rules and Appropriations Committee shall be informed of the absences 24 hours in advanced in order for said absence to be excused. In the event that a scheduled class is the reason for a senator to miss the first or second roll call, a class schedule should be provided at the beginning of the semester. In the instance that a university event is the reason for a senator to miss the first or second roll call, documentation from a coach, sponsor, or professor shall be provided 24 hours in advance for said event. Excused absences shall not count against a senator. Fines and absences for missing a senate meeting will still be addressed by the Parliamentary Pro-Tem who will report them to the Senate President and Rules and Appropriations Chair whom will in turn, report these issues to the Student Government Secretary for documentation.
- (D) Absences shall be recorded by the Senate secretary and the Rules and Appropriations Committee chair, or a member of the committee in the event of the Chair's absence.
- (E) Student senators shall meet with the dean of the College under which they are elected no less than once a semester (fall and spring). Attendance to dean's meetings shall be enforced in the same manner as regular Senate meetings. Failure to meet with the dean shall result in one (1) absence per missed meeting.

SECTION 9. Any vacancy occurring shall be filled by a student who:

- (A) Meets all Senate qualifications (Section 3 B).
- (B) Is present at the meeting on which the vacancy shall be voted.
- (C) Is approved by plurality of the Senate present.

- (D) Vacancies can be filled once a month during the first Senate meeting of the respective month and will be specified on the agenda as “Vacancy Filling.” This section of the agenda will be forgone if no vacancies are to be filled.

SECTION 10. The Student Senate shall have the following powers:

- (A) To enact all laws considered necessary and proper by a majority of Senate seats currently filled for the general welfare of the Student Body.
- (B) To approve the recommendations by the Student Body president for the chief justice and Student Judicial Board by a 2/3 majority vote of all members present.
- (C) To set all procedures for general and special elections as according to the current Election Code.
- (D) To submit, by 2/3 vote of the total membership of Student Senate, any proposed amendments to this Constitution of the Student Government to the Student Body.
- (E) To bring article of impeachment against president, vice president, chief justice, and members of the Student Judicial Board, other members of the senate, or any other appointees to the executive cabinet. Such articles must be presented to the Senate in session and shall be signed by not less than 1/3 of the total membership of the Senate. Such articles shall be referred to Rules and Appropriations Committee of the Senate, and should a majority of the committee vote impeachment, the officer shall be impeached. Should a member or chair of the Rules and Appropriations Committee be recommended for impeachment the Student Affairs Committee will fulfill that responsibility previously delegated to the Rules and Appropriations Committee. Trial shall be held before the Senate with the chief justice presiding, unless he or she shall have been impeached in which circumstance, the chief justice pro-tem shall be the presiding officer. A 2/3 vote of the total membership shall remove the impeached officer that failed to meet the requirements of his or her duties.
- (F) To fill any appointed office which the Student Body president or Special Appointing Committee of the Student Government does not fill by two long-semester class weeks after the vacancy has occurred. The Senate will fill the vacancy by a 2/3 vote of the members present. In the event that a suitable candidate cannot be found, the Special Appointing Committee will appoint an interim to fill the appointed office until a suitable candidate is found.
- (G) To work election polls.
- (H) To assist with and attend events and special functions of the Student Government.

ARTICLE IV THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH

SECTION 1. The executive power of the Student Government shall be vested in the president of the Student Government.

- (A) The president shall have an executive cabinet comprised of the vice president of the Student Government, the chief justice, and such other administrative appointees of the president.
- (B) The president shall be the chairperson in all cabinet meetings. The vice president shall be the vice-chairperson and shall represent the interest of the executive cabinet in the Student Senate.
- (C) The executive cabinet shall be the policy implementing body of the Student Government officers.

SECTION 2. The president of the Student Government must have a minimum of 50 West Texas A&M credit hours upon completion of the spring semester, and must have completed 60 West Texas A&M credit hours (Junior standing), or be of graduate standing by the beginning of the fall semester following election upon taking office. He or she must have been enrolled the previous two consecutive semesters at West Texas A&M University prior to assuming office and must be currently registered at West Texas A&M University in at least twelve (12) semester hours, unless enrolled in final semester. Graduate students must be registered in no less than six (6) semester hours, unless enrolled in final semester, and must have and maintain a 3.000 cumulative grade point average. The president shall not be on scholastic or disciplinary probation when applying for or during his/her term of office. At the time of application, he or she shall have needed to serve in any branch of Student Government for at least one long fall or spring semester. In the event that he or she has not previously served in Student Government, then the applicant's nomination must be approved by Student Senate by a majority vote.

SECTION 3. The president of the Student Government shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

- (A) To be the official representative and chief executive officer of the Student Government.
- (B) To insure that all provisions of the Constitution and By-Laws of the Student Government are faithfully executed and adhered to.
- (C) To act as chief coordinator of executive cabinet functions and activities involved with the Student Government officers.
- (D) To act as an ex-officio member of all executive committees of the Student Government.
- (E) To not hold any other job which will interfere with office hours, Monday through Friday, as agreed to in the acceptance agreement.
- (F) To present a State of the Student Body Address outlining tentative goals for inclusion into the legislative program for the coming year. This Address shall be presented to Student Senate by its third regular meeting.
- (G) To present the projected budget before the end of September; whether that be in an official meeting or in the form of a special meeting so that the Student Senate may be informed of the fiscal projections for the academic year.
- (H) To serve, if not currently a member of Student Senate, as an ex-officio member of Student Senate after spring general election until taking office.
- (I) To inform the other Student Body Officers and the Chair of the Rules and Appropriations Committee of any felony, misdemeanor, or Code of Student Life charge/violation within one week of the incident.

SECTION 4. The president of the Student Government shall have the following powers:

- (A) To serve on and/or recommend student representatives to University committees as requested by University officials.
- (B) To create Student Government executive committees and appoint their chairpersons.
- (C) To require in writing by the Student Judicial Board an interpretation of any provision of the Constitution, Senate by-laws, or executive order.
- (D) To issue orders designed to carry out the proper functioning of the Constitution or Senate by-laws.
- (E) To call a special election with the approval of 2/3 of senators present.
- (F) To have direct veto power on any legislative action of the Student Senate. Any bill or resolution not signed or vetoed within ten days shall be considered signed by the president. Veto may be overridden by a 2/3 vote of senators present and enacted within two weeks of the date of veto.

Any veto made must be reported to the Senate within one week or will be considered signed by the president.

SECTION 5. The vice president of Student Government shall meet the same qualifications as the president of Student Government (Article IV, Section 2), and must have served, at time of application, at least two long semesters as a Senator.

SECTION 6. The vice president of Student Government shall have the following duties and powers:

- (A) To serve as president of Student Senate.
- (B) To see that the responsibilities of the Senate are faithfully executed.
- (C) To succeed to and carry out the functions of the presidency in case of death, resignation, removal, or temporary absence of the president.
- (D) To not hold any other job which will interfere with office hours, Monday through Friday, as agreed to in acceptance agreement.
- (E) To appoint the members and chairpersons of any standing, special, and temporary committees of the Student Senate.
- (F) To call special sessions of the Student Senate.
- (J) To inform the other Student Body Officers and the Chair of the Rules and Appropriations Committee of any felony, misdemeanor, or Code of Student Life charge/violation within one week of the incident.

SECTION 7. The Special Appointing Committee shall consist of the incoming president, vice president, chief justice, Student Government Secretary, and advisor of Student Government and shall have the following duties and powers:

- (A) To interview applicants for chief justice and the Student Judicial Board. The Special Appointing Committee, for interviewing the incoming chief justice, shall consist of the incoming president and vice president, the outgoing chief justice, and the advisor for Student Government.
- (B) To make recommendations for chief justice and the Student Judicial Board to the Student Body President.
- (C) To make non-binding recommendations for executive director and supporting directors to the Student Body President.

ARTICLE V THE JUDICIAL BRANCH

SECTION 1. The Student Judicial Board, its members, and jurisdiction.

- (A) The judicial branch of the Student Government shall consist of the Student Judicial Board.
- (B) The Student Judicial Board shall consist of the chief justice and four (4) associate justices. When assuming the role of a justice, they must have and maintain a 2.750 cumulative grade point average, be currently registered at West Texas A&M in at least twelve (12) semester hours, unless enrolled in final semester, and they must have been enrolled at West Texas A&M University the previous semester, unless they are occupying seat four. Graduate students must be registered at West Texas A&M University in no less than six (6) semester hours, unless enrolled in final semester, and must have and maintain a 3.000 cumulative grade point average. Students may not be on scholastic or disciplinary probation when applying for or during term of office.
- (C) The chief justice of the Student Government must have a minimum of 45 hours or be of graduate status upon completion of the spring semester. The chief justice must have been enrolled at West Texas A&M University the two (2) previous consecutive semesters prior to assuming office and must be currently registered at West Texas A&M University in at least 12 semester hours, unless enrolled in final semester. He or she must have and maintain a 3.000 cumulative grade point average. Graduate students must be registered at West Texas A&M University in no less than six (6) semester hours, unless enrolled in final semester, and must have and maintain a 3.000 cumulative grade point average. The chief justice shall not be on scholastic or disciplinary probation when applying for or during term of office.

- (D) The chief justice and justices shall serve a term of one academic year. Vacancies shall be filled by the same process as the original appointments and the new appointee will finish out the term of the previous chief justice or justice.
- (E) Unexcused absences at Student Judicial Board hearings incurred by the justices, four (4) for the fall and spring semesters combined, will automatically remove a justice from the Student Judicial Board. Attendance to hearings will be recorded by the chief justice. The vacancies, due to unexcused absences, will be filled in the same manner as the process for original appointments. The new appointee will finish out the term of the previous justice.
- (F) The chief justice shall be the presiding officer of the Student Judicial Board. Three (3) members of the Student Judicial Board shall constitute a quorum. If both the chief justice and the chief justice pro-tem are absent, the associate justices shall elect one of their number to preside over hearings.
- (G) The chief justice pro-tem shall be an associate justice chosen by the chief justice at the beginning of the fall and spring semesters. In the event of the death, resignation, or removal of the chief justice, the chief justice pro-tem shall automatically have the following powers:
 - 1. To serve as presiding officer for hearings of the Student Judicial Board.
 - 2. To swear in members of the Executive Cabinet and Student Judicial Board.
 - 3. To assume the duties and responsibilities over Student Government elections.In the event of the absence of the chief justice, the chief justice pro-tem shall have the powers listed under Article V, Section 1, letter G, numbers 1, 2, and 3 only at the instruction/discretion of the chief justice. If the chief justice is running for elective office, honorary position, or is otherwise unable to fulfill these duties, his/her duties and responsibilities over the election, shall be passed down to the chief justice pro-tem. In the event that the chief justice and the chief justice pro-tem are both running for an elective office, honorary position, or are otherwise unable to fulfill these duties, the remaining justices shall elect one of their members to assume the duties and responsibilities of the election.
- (H) The judicial power of the Board shall be extended to all cases arising under this Constitution, the functions of Student Affairs, and appeal, with such exceptions and under such regulations that the Student Senate or the University shall make.
- (I) The Student Judicial Board shall hear cases as assigned and pertaining to:
 - 1. Violations of the current Code of Student Life.
 - 2. Violations of the current Residence Hall Handbook.
 - 3. Appeals of decisions made by the Inter-Fraternity Council, the Panhellenic Council, or the Intramural Board.
 - 4. Violations of the Student Bill of Rights.
- (J) The Student Judicial Board shall have the power of judicial review over any Senate by-law change or any election code revision. In order for the Judicial Board to hear the case a member of the student body must create a student body petition (clearly stating the constitutional question) that is signed by 30% of the total number of votes cast in the preceding general election. Such a petition must be presented to the Judicial Board after the signatures have been verified by the Student Government Secretary as officially registered in the university. In order to assist the Student Government Secretary in this verification process, every signature must include the students ID number to be counted as a valid signature.

SECTION 2. The Student Judicial Board shall have the authority to summons individuals and/or physical evidence as pertaining to the incident or situation at hand.

SECTION 3. The chief justice shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

- (A) To be the presiding officer of the Student Judicial Board.

ARTICLE VI ELECTIONS

SECTION 1. All elections will be held in compliance with the current WTAMU Student Government Election Code and WTAMU Code of Student life.

SECTION 2. Terms of Office.

(A) Terms of office for the president, vice president, chief justice, associate and alternate justices, and senators of Student Government shall be one academic year. Their terms shall begin after the last day of spring finals, after taking the following oath which is given by the chief justice or Senate Sergeant-at-Arms.

- “I affirm that I will faithfully execute the duties of my office and will to the best of my ability uphold the Constitution of the West Texas A&M University Student Government, and enforce the laws which are contained herein.”

(B) The oath for the newly elected President and Vice President shall be given prior to the expiration of the terms for the current President and Vice President. The oath for the newly appointed chief justice for the following year shall be given at the meeting in which he/she is approved by Student Senate. Senators shall receive their oath at the first Senate meeting of the fall semester to be given by the Sergeant-at-Arms or the Chief Justice.

(C) Students filling Senate vacancies during the academic year shall be sworn in during the Senate meetings in which they were appointed by the Sergeant-at-Arms. If the sergeant-at-arms is unable to fulfill this duty, the chief justice will oversee the swearing in of new senators.

SECTION 3. Freshman and graduate senators shall be elected to the Student Senate in the fall general election. Persons running for senator in the undergraduate schools shall stand for election in the spring general election. A plurality of votes is necessary to win the election.

SECTION 4. The president and vice president of the Student Government shall be elected in the spring general election. A simple majority of the votes cast in each race is necessary to win the election.

SECTION 5. Candidates for any elective or appointive offices of the Student Government may not be on academic or disciplinary probation at the time of candidacy or term of office.

SECTION 6. No person shall hold two elective offices in the Student Government simultaneously. No member of the Student Judicial Board shall hold any other elective or appointive offices in the Student Government.

SECTION 7. In the event of the demise, resignation, or removal of the Student Body president, all of his/her appointments would continue to their normal expiration date.

ARTICLE VII AMENDMENTS

SECTION 1. Amendments to the Student Government Constitution, statutory, initiative, or referendum may originate in one of two ways:

- (A) By a 2/3 vote of the total membership of the Student Senate; or
- (B) By a Student Body petition signed by the total membership of the Student Senate or 30% of the total number of ballots cast in the preceding spring general election. Such a petition must be presented to the election commissioner after all signatures have been verified by the chief justice of the Student Judicial Board as being officially registered in the University. In order to assist the chief justice in this verification process, every signature on their petition must also include the student's Student ID number to be counted as a valid signature.

SECTION 2. Proposed amendments to the Constitution must receive a majority of votes cast in a Student Body election. All proposed constitutional amendments shall include a separate statement on the ballot in clear language stating precisely the intent and effect of the proposed amendment. The chief justice and one associate justice shall make a final determination of the substance of this statement.

SECTION 3. Any additional amendments to the Constitution shall be added to the back of the Constitution titled Amendment (number of amendment), until ratified.

ARTICLE VIII
CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS AND SUPREMACY

SECTION 1. Any Senate action, legislative or non-legislative, or any executive or judicial duties which are not in compliance with the articles of the Constitution shall be considered invalid.

SECTION 2. All judicial, executive, and legislative officers of the Student Government of West Texas A&M University shall be bound by oath or affirmation to comply with and enforce all the articles of the Constitution and all laws passed on compliance thereof.

ARTICLE IX
RATIFICATION

SECTION 1. Constitutional amendments shall take effect immediately after having received a 2/3 vote of the total membership of the Student Senate and being ratified by a majority of the votes cast in a Student Body election.

SECTION 2. The Constitution ratified at the same election that the offices and Senate seats were filled, will be the valid Constitution under which the newly elected members, as well as the older members, will proceed.
